

K-12 Subcommittee Update – July 6, 2016

Carolyn Falin, McDowell County Schools, has reached out to Dyan Smiley and Natalie Dean regarding AFT Professional Development and Share my lesson (respectively). They will be having their McDowell County PD training on August 16th: 8:30-11:30am and 12:30-3:30pm (at Mt. View HS)

- Details and logistics for the Share My Lesson training are still being finalized
- McDowell County Schools would like to get training on general Classroom Management for their incoming substitute teachers. They will be paid a stipend, and there will be about 30 substitute teachers. AFT is looking to see if they can support this effort through their national trainers.

They are still doing PD throughout the summer on different topics.

Finally, August 26th, McDowell County Schools is kicking off the Family Fitness Challenge, in partnership with WV CHOICES. The schools will compete against each other, through mid-October. The winning family will win a trip to the Coca-Cola Speedway.

Carolyn Falin will work with Eloise Elliot, from WV CHOICES (a RM partner), to kick off back to school with a Color Run on August 27th, with students and families. They will flesh this out towards the middle of July. The Color Run will be focused on reading and attendance. Once Carolyn knows what is involved in pulling this off she will share more details..
